1ST ANNUAL PINE BARRENS FOLK FESTIVAL

A Benefit for the Preservation of the Jersey Pinelands thru Environmental Education at the Conservation and Environmental Studies Center, Inc.
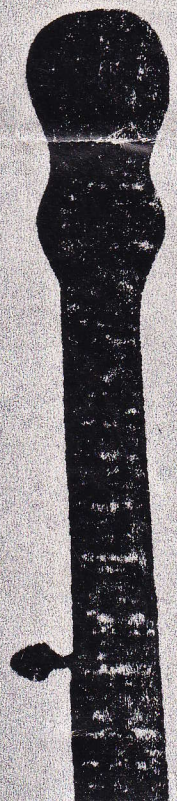
(A NON-PROFIT AGENCY)

SATURDAY EVENING- NOVEMBER 18th

7:30 p.m. - 1 a.m.



CONTINUOUS MUSIC AT HAND AND WHITE HALLS

Folk Country

Bluegrass

Traditional Blues

LOCATION: HISTORIC WHITESBOG, HOME OF THE CONSERVATION AND ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES CENTER, INC.
Off County 530 south of Browns Mills, N.J. See map

The Company Town where marketable Blueberries were first developed. One of the earliest and once largest Cranberry and Blueberry producing farms in New Jersey.

ADMISSION: $3.00 (Tickets sold at the door) For Advance Tickets make checks Payable to CESC, Inc.

PERFORMERS INCLUDE:

Steve Makler
Dolores Mazurkewicz
Ed Dougherty
Larry Weble
Barry Roberts
Waco
Bill Conley
Pete Curry
Pat Bloise
The Jo Tynon Band
Bruce Sturtevent
Tex, The One Man Band
The Pine Coners
and More!